1. Come, O long-expected Jesus,
born to set your people free;
from our fears and sins release us;
give us peace and liberty.
2. You are hope and consolation light of all the human race,
dear desire of ev'ry nation,
source of joy and saving grace.
3. Born your people to deliver;
born a child and yet a king;
born to reign in us for ever;
now your gracious kingdom bring.
4. By your own eternal Spirit,
rule in all our hearts alone:
by your all-sufficient merit,
raise us to your glorious throne.
