

The Lord, my shepherd

1. The Lord, my shepherd, satisfies my deepest wants and needs; in pastures green I rest in him, and he my spirit feeds.
2. By gentle streams he guides my feet, restores my spirit's flame, and leads me into righteousness to glorify his name.
3. Though I must tread death's darkened path, I feel no dread nor fear, for there, with shepherd's rod and staff I find you ever near.
4. You set the table for a feast, where ev'ryone can see, anoint my head with holy oil, and joy is flowing free.
5. So shall each moment of my life be marked by holy grace, and in God's house eternally I'll find my resting-place.
